COACHES

HEAD COACH BILL "SPEEDY" MORRIS

Bill "Speedy" Morris is a winner. Morris' career coaching record to date stands at 584-178, including men's college basketball (153-65 with the La Salle men's team), women's college basketball (43-17 as La Salle's women's coach) and boy's high school (347-82 at Philadelphia Roman Catholic and 41-14 at Penn Charter).

Speedy's winning percentage in his seven years as La Salle's men's coach (.702) puts him 15th on the winningest active Division I coaches list (by percentage and with a minimum of five years at a Division I school).

On January 19, 1993 when La Salle upset Big Five rival St. Joseph's by a 66-53 count, Speedy earned his 146th La Salle men's coaching victory and surpassed Ken Loeffler on La Salle's all-time victory list. Loeffler, who coached La Salle's 1952 NIT and 1954 NCAA championship teams, earned 145 victories from 1949-55 to hold the previous Explorer record.

The NCAA Tournament victory over Southern Mississippi in Hartford on March 15, 1990, was Speedy's 100th as La Salle's men's coach. Only three other Division I coaches have won that many games in their first four seasons - current Syracuse coach Jim Boeheim, North Carolina State's legendary coach of the late 40's and early 50's, Everett Case, and, most recently, Roy Williams of Kansas.

Coaching success has been the story wherever Morris has ventured, and especially since he took over as La Salle men's coach for the 1986-87 season.

The 1991-92 season saw Morris lead the Explorers to their sixth straight post-season appearance and their fourth Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference tournament title and NCAA Tournament berth in five years. La Salle's exciting last-second victory over Manhattan in the MAAC finals and its heart-breaking two-point loss to Seton Hall in the NCAA Tournament were two of college basketball's most-watched games during March Madness.

In 1989-90, Morris guided the Explorers to a 30-2 record, the most victories by any La Salle team in history and a school record of 22 straight wins, their third straight MAAC regular-season championship (16-0), the MAAC Tournament crown and a third consecutive NCAA berth. When La Salle beat Southern Mississippi in Hartford, it was the Explorers' first NCAA victory since 1983.

His 1987-88 team compiled a 24-10 record, went 14-0 in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference and swept through the MAAC Tournament to earn the conference's NCAA Tournament berth. In 1988-89, Morris moved things up a notch with a 26-6 record, another MAAC regular-season championship (13-1) and the MAAC Tournament crown again. The 1990-91 squad battled through injuries and the graduation loss of Player of the Year Lionel Simmons to a 19-10 and a berth in the NIT, where the Explorers lost a 93-90 heartbreaker at Massachusetts.

Morris took his first Explorer team to a 20-13 record and into the championship game of the post-season National Invitation Tournament. He won or shared the MAAC Coach of the Year honors twice, gaining the solo honor in 1988 and sharing it with St. Peter's Ted Fiore in 1989.

He was also named the 1989 and 1990 District 3 Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) and was voted the Eastern Coach of the Year in 1990. He was named the Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year in 1989, 1990 and 1992 by the Philadelphia B'nai B'rith.

La Salle's victory over St. Peter's in the 1989 MAAC Tournament championship game marked "Speedy's" 500th career victory, embracing high school, La Salle women's and La Salle men's careers. Morris first gained recognition as basketball coach at Roman Catholic High School in Philadelphia. In 14 seasons at Roman, Morris registered 347 victories and only 82 losses. Roman won one Philadelphia City Championship; six Philadelphia Catholic League titles; two National Catholic Tournament championships, and had four 30-win seasons.

Morris then spent two years as head coach of Philadelphia's

William Penn Charter School where he posted a 41-14 record. Here, his 1984 team won the Philadelphia Interacademic League championship, the school's first title in 12 seasons. Morris came to La Salle University for the 1984-85 season when he replaced Kevin Gallagher as head coach of the Explorers' women's program, becoming the first full-time appointment to that position. Morris' women's teams won 22 games in 84-85 and 21 games in 85-86. The 1985-86 team won the MAAC title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Following that season, Morris was named men's basketball coach, becoming the first Division I coach to make such a switch.

A native of Philadelphia, Morris and his wife, Mimi, live in the Roxborough section with their four children - Keith, a former guard on the La Salle team and a 1992 graduate; Brian, a La Salle senior; Margaret Mary, a La Salle junior, and Christopher, 14, a student at St John the Baptist Elementary School.

ASSISTANT COACH JOE MIHALICH

An Explorer to the core, Joe Mihalich has both played and coached basketball at La Salle University. The Philadelphia native is in his 13th season as a member of the coaching staff. Mihalich was the 1978 NCAA squad's Co-captain and "Most-Dedicated-Player." He was a four-time letter-winner under former head coach Paul Westhead.

Following his senior year at La Salle, Mihalich began his coaching career as an assistant to legendary high school coach, Morgan Wootten, at DeMatha High School in Washington D.C. As head coach of DeMatha's junior-varsity team, Mihalich posted a three-year record of 39-5.

Returning to 20th and Olney in 1981, Mihalich has served coaches Dave "Lefty" Ervin and Bill "Speedy" Morris over the last twelve seasons. In that time, La Salle has made five NCAA and three NIT appearances.

In his overall playing and coaching career, Mihalich has played or worked with three of La Salle's four winningest coaches. Add time spent with Wootten at De Matha and Mihalich has served four head coaches with over 1,500 wins to their credit on all levels of competition.

Mihalich was involved in the recruitment of seven of La Salle's nine most prolific scorers of all-time, including 1990 national player-of-the-year, Lionel Simmons. He currently coordinates all recruiting, scouting and team travel as part of his coaching responsibilities.

In addition to his coaching duties, Mihalich is a part-time instructor in La Salle's department of Mathematics.

The 37-year old Mihalich earned a Master's degree in Sports Administration from Temple University. Joe and his wife, Mary (La Salle class of 1980), have three sons, Joe (6) and twins Matt and Tony (4).

ASSISTANT COACHES

JOE BRYANT

Joe Bryant, a La Salle University standout in the mid-70s and an eight-year veteran of the National Basketball Association, is the newest member of Coach Speedy Morris' staff.

Bryant, 38, replaced Randy Monroe, joining assistant coach Joe Mihalich and volunteer assistant Rich Prendergast.

Bryant averaged 20.7 points per game during a two-year career at La Salle (1973-74 and 1974-75) before entering the NBA draft, in which he was a first-round choice of the Philadelphia 76ers.

The John Bartram High product played four years with the 76ers, three with the San Diego Clippers and one with the Houston Rockets before embarking on an overseas career that saw him play and coach in Italy, Spain and France.

Upon returning to the United States, Bryant became involved in community affairs and also coached in the Sonny Hill League. He has conducted clinics in Philadelphia and the suburbs, and has served as the girls' coach at Akiba Hebrew Academy in Merion and boys' junior varsity coach at Lower Merion.

Bryant has appeared as guest speaker at assemblies honoring foreign-language students in the Philadelphia Public School system and was co-ordinator of a summer basketball program for the Philadelphia Housing Authority.

Bryant is married to the former Pam Cox, and the couple have three children, daughters Sharia, 17 and Shaya, 16, and son Kobe, 15.

RICH PRENDERGAST

An enthusiastic supporter of La Salle basketball, Prendergast enters his tenth season as a volunteer coach to Speedy Morris' team.

Prendergast has coached in the Philadelphia CYO and in the Catholic League high school system. Before joining the La Salle coaching staff, Prendergast directed the women's team at Hallahan High School to two playoff berths in four seasons.

In 1986, Prendergast was honored with the Mary S. O'Connor Loyalty Award for dedication and service to the La Salle women's intercollegiate athletic programs.

Prendergast, 1960 La Salle graduate, lives in Stone Harbor, NJ. Two of his three daughters, Maria and Katherine, are La Salle graduates, while the youngest, Colleen, aspires to become an Explorer.

1993-94 OUTLOOK

GUARDS TO BEAR THE BRUNT OF LA SALLE'S OFFENSE

Unlike a year ago, when La Salle University men's basketball coach "Speedy" Morris could check his roster and find only a bare minimum of statistical help from his returnees, he now sees a backcourt that, itself, combined for almost 38 points, seven rebounds and six assists, per game in 1992-93.

That duo is made up of juniors Kareem Townes (22.5, 3.5, 1.8) and Paul Burke (15.1, 3.8, 4.9). The co-captains of this no-senior squad are the lone double-figure scorers back from the team that finished third (behind NCAA participants Evansville and Xavier) in its first season in the Midwestern Collegiate Conference (14-13 overall, 9-5 in the MCC).

Morris, who has produced prolific scorers and eventual pros in Tim Legler, Lionel Simmons, Doug Overton and Randy Woods in his years at La Salle, has come up with another in Townes, who sat out his freshman year at La Salle because of Proposition 48. The 6-3 product of South Philadelphia High (also Simmons' Alma Mater) came to La Salle with outstanding credentials and, for the most part, lived up to them in his first varsity season.

He scored only six points in his first two games last season, but went on to finish with an average of 22.5 points per game and led the MCC in scoring. He also:

- * Hit double figures in the remaining 25 games;
- * Connected for 30 or more four times;
- * Reached 20 or more on 20 occasions;
- * Scored a career-high 35 in an MCC win at Dayton;
- * Made first-team All-MCC and the All-MCC Newcomer team;
- * Was voted the Philadelphia Big 5 Newcomer of the Year and was elected to the Big 5 second team;
- * And after scoring 67 points in two road games, was named Sports Illustrated's Division I Player of the Week.

Backcourt partner Paul Burke wasn't bad himself -- double figures in 21 of 27 games, a career-high 30 at Loyola Chicago, and an 80.2 percentage from the free-throw line. "I believe we are solid at guard," said coach Morris in what would appear to be an understatement. "We expect Kareem and Paul to have very good seasons."

While Burke and Townes are experienced hands, upfront presents a different story. Only Terquin Mott (21.5 minutes per game) has much playing time behind him. The 6-8 sophomore, who may have to alternate between center and forward, will anchor a front line that will rely on Romaine Haywood, a much-touted 6-6 forward from Atlantic City (NJ) High who sat out his freshman year because of Prop 48, and 6-10 Jasper Van Teeseling, from The Netherlands.

Morris had considerable success in the development of Milko Lieverst, another Netherlands product who came with limited experience but by the time he left La Salle, had developed into an outstanding rebounder, staunch defender and dependable inside scorer.

Like Lieverst, Van Teeseling will need time to develop but, with such a lack of frontcourt returnees, he may have to be thrown into battle earlier than Morris would have liked.

Part of the Explorers' rebounding problem lies in the fact that Blitz Wooten, the team's leading rebounder and second best shot-blocker last season, has transferred after encountering academic difficulties.

Two other newcomers, Everett Catlin and Derick Newton, should see plenty of early action as coach Morris goes about the two-pronged task of finding a starting five and a bench to cope with the rigorous schedule that lies ahead.

Quincy Lee and Mike Melchionni complete the current roster. Lee was a late bloomer as a freshman, playing particularly well in a victory at Duquesne and in the MCC tournament loss to Butler. Melchionni, despite seeing only limited playing time a season ago, probably will increase that this season.

The schedule includes games against Philadelphia Big 5 rivals Temple, Villanova, St. Joseph's and Pennsylvania, plus Illinois, Yale, Kansas State, Notre Dame, Richmond, James Madison and the likes of Connecticut, Creighton and Colorado as possible in-season tournament opponents, in addition to MCC rivals Xavier, Evansville, Detroit Mercy, Loyola Chicago and Butler.

La Salle's inability to make the NCAA or National Invitation Tournament last year ended Morris' streak of six in his first six years at La Salle.

And for 1993-94? "To get back to post-season play," Morris said, "our returning players will have to improve significantly and we will also be counting on our new players."

1992-93 REVIEW
MCC/BIG 5

1992-93 SEASON REVIEW

Coach Speedy Morris and the La Salle Explorers entered the 1992-93 season needing to solve a large puzzle created by the graduation of four seniors including Randy Woods and Jack Hurd and the move to the highly competitive Midwestern Collegiate Conference. Pre-season polls picked the Explorers to finish no better than fourth in the MCC. Many even questioned whether the Explorers could find a way to finish at or above the .500 mark for the 17th consecutive year.

At the start of the season the Explorers, made the experts look good with lackluster performances in their first two games. For the first time in Coach Morris' career at La Salle, the Explorers were very sluggish on offense and were in desperate need of a go to guy.

After squeaking by Division II Philadelphia Textile (Textile's only loss of the regular season) in the opener and suffering their worst defeat ever at the hands of Big Five rival Pennsylvania, the Explorers engines were finally given a jump start by its sophomore sensation, Kareem Townes. Townes a 6-3 guard from Southern High School in Philadelphia, broke out of an 0-24 shooting slump midway through the first half of the season's third game, scoring a game high 31 points to lead the Explorers to a nationally televised (ESPN) victory over James Madison. Following the encouraging James Madison victory were three straight losses to Maryland, Temple, and West Virginia.

January 1st couldn't have come at a better time for Speedy and the Explorers. The Explorers opened the new year with a big win at home over a tough Richmond team with senior-forward Ray Schultz providing the scoring punch by pouring in a career high 22 points. After the Richmond win it was back on the road where the Explorers fell to Kansas State, Evansville, and Butler. When the Explorers returned to the Civic Center for a game against Detroit Mercy they finally started to show signs of confidence. A 35-foot three-pointer by Townes at the buzzer forced overtime that led to a much needed victory against a conference opponent and started a four game winning streak. The Explorers wins over conference foes Loyola-Chicago and Duquesne sandwiched a big upset victory over Big Five rival St. Joseph's. The St. Joseph's game marked a milestone for Coach Morris as he gained a record 146th victory as La Salle men's coach. With the win, Speedy surpassed the previous mark of 145 victories held by Ken Loeffler, coach of the 1954 NCAA Champions and the 1952 NIT Champions.

La Salle hit the road again for games against Notre Dame, Princeton, Xavier, and Dayton. The road swing finally yielded the Explorers first road victory when they defeated Dayton on the strength of a career high 35 points from Kareem Townes.

The Explorers faltered on their return home, suffering a defeat at the hands of the Purple Aces of Evansville. The loss was quickly forgotten when La Salle generated consecutive victories over Butler at home, and Detroit Mercy, Loyola Chicago and Duquesne on the road. The final two road games were highlighted by the stellar guard play of sophomore Paul Burke. Burke scored a career high 30 against Loyola and added a team high 27 more against the Dukes. The road wins gave La Salle a 4-3 road record against conference opponents. The Explorers closed out the season at home with a loss to Xavier and a victory over Dayton.

As the second season began the Explorers had forged an improbable 14-12 overall record and a 9-5 third place conference mark. Assured of its 17th consecutive non-losing season (57th in 62 seasons) and also extending a 17 year streak of winning conference marks, the Explorers had high hopes for post-season success but were thwarted by Butler in the opening round of the MCC tournament by a 77-70 count..

1952 NIT CHAMPIONS

Grekin, Gola MVPs as La Salle Tops Dayton to Win NIT Championship

basketball tournaments - in the late 1930s through the middle '50s - the National Invitation Tournament was at least on a par with and perhaps superior to the still-emerging NCAA Tournament. So, when the La Salle Explorers romped through Seton Hall, St. John's, Duquesne and Dayton to capture the 1952 championship, it was a feat of national basketball importance.

La Salle, coached by future Hall of Famer Ken Loeffler, had entered the NIT as an unseeded team and had to get by Seton Hall's powerful Pirates, led by seven-footer Walter Dukes and an exceptional guard in Richie Regan. But La Salle freshman Tom Gola and junior Fred Lehle hit for 30 and 25 points respectively, with Lehle pouring in 20 in the first half.

Gola had 19 rebounds and six assists and junior Norm Grekin grabbed 15 boards. In a game that was described as one of the best in the NIT's 14-year history, the lead margin on either side was never more than four points, as a capacity crowd of 18,422 wildly cheered on both teams in New York's old Madison Square Garden

In the quarter-finals, Grekin, playing his way toward a share of tournament MVP honors with Gola, tallied 17 points and had 16 rebounds in a 51-45 victory over local favorite St. John's. And Grekin again played a big role in the 59-46 romp over the Sihugo Green-led Duquesne Dukes, rated by many as the top team in the tournament. Grekin had 21 points and 10 rebounds, Gola contributed 14 rebounds and 10 points and sophomore Jackie Moore added 12 points and 11 rebounds.

Then came the championship game against a tall and talented Dayton Flyers team, and it was no contest. Led by Gola and Lehle and playmaking captain Buddy Donnelly, the Explorers built a 38-30 halftime lead, then wrapped up the title with a 37-34 second-half advantage. Grekin, Gola and Moore were named to the All-Tournament team, and the Olympic Trials were just ahead.

At that time, the Olympic squad was picked from team trials rather than individuals as is done today. In those Trials, La Salle again defeated St. John's, 71-62, but bowed to Clyde Lovellette and the Kansas Jayhawks, 70-65, and fell before the Phillips Oilers, an AAU powerhouse.

Between the NIT and the Olympic Trials, the team, the school and the City of Philadelphia received notice from all around the country. And coach Loeffler had this praise for the team in an article that appeared in the La Salle Collegian:

"This was a new team, a young team, like a child in fact. It first had to walk. As any child would, it fell a few times. It gradually learned to walk, then to run. Against Seton Hall, it found it could jump as well as run."

And Ken could have added: "All the way to a national championship."

LA SALLE BEATS BRADLEY, 92-76, FOR NCAA TITLE

Explorers Wrap Up Game
With 30-Point 3d Period;
2 Scoring Marks Broken

By Bob Vetrone
Of The Bulletin Sports Staff

Kansas City, Mo., March 20 -- La Salle College, playing by far its greatest game of a long and successful season, roared to a 92-76 victory over Bradley tonight to bring Philadelphia its first NCAA basketball championship.

The Explorers, receiving sparkling performance from about a half dozen of its players, used a devastating 30-point third quarter to reach the highest pinnacle any local team has approached. Tom Gola, Charley Singley, Frank Blatcher, Fran O'Malley, Frank O'Hara -- all took important parts in the triumph, which was turned into a runaway by that prolific third quarter.

In rolling to its 92-point total, La Salle broke the record for points in a championship game. The combined pointage of 168 also set a new record for the tourney final.

LA SALLE IN THE NBA DRAFT

When Randy Woods was selected as the 16th selection in the 1992 draft by the Los Angeles Clippers, La Salle became one of only five schools to have at least one player drafted in each of the first three years of the NBA's two round draft. Woods joined teammates Lionel Simmons (1990) and Doug Overton (1991). The other schools in this elite company were Syracuse, Georgia Tech, Louisiana State and Arizona. LA SALLE'S BEST

TOM GOLA 1954 Player of the Year

Tom Gola, plain and simple, put La Salle basketball on the map. Widely regarded as the premier college player of his time, Gola led the Explorers to the 1952 NIT and 1954 NCAA Championships. A scorer both inside and outside, he averaged 20.9 points and 19.0 rebounds in his four-year career. A three-time collegiate All-American, Gola played in the NBA with the Philadelphia Warriors and New York Knicks and was named All-Pro five times. Gola added to his La Salle glory as head coach of the 1968-69 Explorers who finished 23-1 and as the second ranked team in the nation.

Among Gola's honors are: 1969 Coach of the Year, New York and Philadelphia Sports Writers; 1979 NCAA Silver Anniversary Award Recipient; "Living Sports Legend", Philadelphia Sports Writers Association, 1985; Madison Square Garden Hall of Fame; Madison Square Garden All-Time Team; Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame; SPORT Magazine All-Time All-American Team; Helms College Basketball Hall of Fame; Big Five Hall of Fame, 1986 (Special Category, Coach)

MICHAEL BROOKS 1980 Player of the Year

A consensus All-American, Brooks is the school's 2nd all-time leading scorer and 19th on the NCAA career scoring list. He also holds the school mark for most points in a game with 51. A spectacular combination of strength and grace highlighted Brooks' play as did his intelligence on the court. In 1980, Brooks was named Captain of the United States Olympic Team and East Coast Conference "Player of the Year". Brooks played professionally with the NBA's San Diego Clippers.

Among Brooks' honors are: United States Basketball Writers Association "Player of the Year" 1980; Big Five "Player of the Year" 1978, 1980; Big Five Hall of Fame 1986; Widmer Eastern College "Player of the Year"; National Association of Basketball Coaches "Player of the Year" 1980; ECAC All-Decade Team (1970-79)

LIONEL SIMMONS 1990 Player of the Year

Simmons, the Explorers all-time leading scorer, continued the La Salle tradition of dominant players, winning every national Player of the Year award as an unanimous All-American in 1990. He is the 3rd leading scorer in NCAA history and the only player to score over 3,000 points (3,217) and pull down over 1,085 rebounds (1,429). Upon graduating he also held the NCAA record for consecutive games scoring in double figures with 115. Simmons owns the La Salle record book as the career leader in eight categories. He also captained the 1989-90 Explorers, who set a single season record with 30 victories. Simmons is now in his fourth season with the NBA's Sacramento Kings.

Among Simmons' honors are the 1990: John R. Wooden Award; Eastman Kodak Award (National Association of Basketball Coaches); Joe Lapchick Award (Basketball Hall of Fame) and the Naismith Award. LA SALLE
UNIVERSITY

LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

La Salle University is a liberal arts institution which combines the best of all educational worlds. With more than 6,000 men and women attending classes, the University offers a pleasant environment within close proximity to Philadelphia's cultural, social and historic centers. Founded by the Brothers of Christian Schools, La Salle is named for St. John Baptiste de la Salle, founder of the Christian Brothers. The institution, which began as a one-building academy in center city Philadelphia, is on an 82.2-acre, 43-building campus in Philadelphia's Germantown section.

The La Salle day and evening faculty numbers some 400 full and part-time, with 45 different programs of study offered in which to major. With a student-faculty ratio of 15-1 and an average class size of 20, students can be assured of as much personal guidance as needed from faculty members. This commitment to the individual has always been a major tenet of the Christian Brothers' goals for La Salle.

La Salle's curriculum requires the completion of 120 credits, but allows wide flexibility in choosing courses. A limited number of requirements in English composition, literature, philosophy and religion provide greater opportunity for depth outside the student's major field. The number of courses required by a department of its major never exceeds 17, leaving 8-10 courses as free electives that may be used to build a strong minor/dual major or diversify one's background.

Various independent study programs provide the students with greater options. A thriving nationally-recognized Honors Program is available for gifted students. "La Salle in Europe" offers students the opportunity to spend their sophomore or junior year at the University of Fribourg, in Switzerland, while receiving full academic credit at La Salle. Programs are also available for a semester or a year of study in Spain.

Among the major buildings on campus are: the Connelly Library; the Roland Holroyd Science Center with facilities for study and research in Biology, Geology, Physics, and Psychology; the Olney Hall classroom building, and the College Union which houses offices for most student activities and clubs and is the main meeting place on campus.

The athletic department is housed in Hayman Hall. The facility includes the 1,700-seat Joseph Kirk Natatorium, three regulation-sized basketball courts, a 12 laps/mile suspended running track, weight training and exercise areas, a sauna, squash courts and a medical training area.

La Salle students come from 700 public and private schools in 30 states and 20 countries. The university houses more than 1,600 resident students in 11 residence halls and three apartment complexes. More than 75% of the student body plan graduate or professional work in their fields, with more than 1,200 degrees conferred annually.

La Salle undergraduates have been awarded 47 Fulbright grants since 1970, one of the highest number presented to an institution in the Mid-Atlantic region. According to a recent survey, La Salle ranked in the top 4% nationally among private undergraduate institutions originating Ph.D.s (33rd out of 877 colleges and universities).

Recently, La Salle has enjoyed increasing national attention, including:

* The New York Times, which selected La Salle as one of only 200 schools to appear in its guide book, Best Buys in College Education.

* The U. S. News & World Report, which named La Salle one of the country's leading regional universities in the 1992 edition of "America's Best Colleges".

* Newsday, the influential Long Island newspaper, which referred to La Salle as a "university on the rise" in an article entitled "Where the Hot Schools Are."

* The 1992 edition of Barron's 300: Best Buys In College Education, which names La Salle among the institutions that offer quality academic programs at prices below the national average.

In 1990, Money magazine's "Guide to America's Best College Buys" ranked La Salle just above Harvard University.

* La Salle had the nation's sixth highest graduation rate (94%) among Division I schools for students on athletic scholarships who entered in 1986-87.

* Since 1977, 99% of all students recommended by the University have been offered entry into medical schools.

* La Salle ranks among the nation's leaders in student retention; nine of every 10 freshmen return for their sophomore year.

* Each year, recruiters representing nearly 200 companies and organizations visit La Salle's campus to conduct job interviews with graduating seniors.
